ANÁLISIS ARTÍSTICO

Preparatory drawing for Caprice 71. If the sun rises, we leave.

Sitting on a bulging sack containing, presumably, the spoils of children. The Brujo Mayor gives his last orders to four of his fellows, pointing to the sky from where the signal to leave will soon come.

Above the infernal group, Goya has sketched the silhouette of a winged vampire, which in the etching will be transformed into a menacing shadow cast against a background of starry sky.
